

Contribution ID : 48

Scaling behaviour of multiplicity distribution in relativistic nuclear collisions

Content :

Scaling behaviour of multiplicity distributions of relativistic charged particles produced in high-energy nuclear interactions is thoroughly investigated. Various interesting features of the scaling parameters such as $\bar{N}(z)$, $S_n(z)$ and $R(z)$ are studied and the observed results shall be presented.

Primary authors : Dr. AHMAD, NAZEER (Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh U.P.-202002 INDIA)

Co-authors : Dr. KHAN, Mohammad Mohisin (Department of Applied Physics, Aligarh Muslim University Aligarh-202002 U.P. INDIA) ; Ms. HUSHNOOD, Hushnood (Department of Applied Physics, Aligarh Muslim University Aligarh-202002 U.P. INDIA) ; Dr. KAMAL, Arshad (3. Department of Applied Physics, B.I. T., Deoghar-814142 Jharkhand INDIA) ; Mr. AHMAD, Tariq (Department of Applied Physics, Aligarh Muslim University Aligarh-202002 U.P. INDIA) ; Prof. ZAFAR, M. (Department of Applied Physics, Aligarh Muslim University Aligarh-202002 U.P. INDIA)

Presenter : Dr. AHMAD, NAZEER (Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh U.P.-202002 INDIA)

Session classification : --not yet classified--

Track classification : --not yet classified--

Type : --not specified--